

C.A.T.S

Calgary Association of Technical Societies

ASM, The Materials Information Society

The purpose of the Calgary Chapter of the Materials Information Society (ASM) is to act as a resource for increasing local materials knowledge and activities.

Members are metallurgists, materials engineers, weld engineers and various other disciplines. Each year, technical meetings, student events and social events are held. Activities and meetings are planned by local members to expand local materials related knowledge and activities.

For more information visit the ASM web site.